FOCUS: SUPPLY CHAIN TRANSPARENCY

20th Sep 2019 | 9-18h | Wizemann Areal | Stuttgart

_ABOUT

The HACKDAY@SIS19 is a fast-track acceleration program for international impact-driven ventures, who are working in the field of supply chain transparency driving a more sustainable future. As a coding, design or business corporate volunteer you will join the venture teams and help them with your own skillset tackling their challenges.

_HOW

Apply until the 1st of September 2019 for the HACKDAY@SIS19 as a corporate volunteer. Please note: There are only 15 seats available.

_WHY

- _ Get out of your bubble
- _ Get new insights & skills for your own work
- _ Meet like minded people of other leading international companies
- _ Work in an international startup atmosphere
- _ Be part of the leading conference on social innovation and entrepreneurship in GER
